

Application Guidelines for International Students

- 2023 Fall Semester -

1. About the Graduate School of Korean Studies

The Graduate School of Korean Studies is an affiliated institution of the Academy of Korean Studies (“AKS”), which operates under the Ministry of Education. It was established in 1980 to nurture scholars contributing to the development and globalization of Korean studies, through a liaison between the AKS’ research capacity and graduate education.

As a research-oriented institution in the fields of humanities and social sciences pertinent to Korea, the Graduate School of Korean Studies has maintained its commitment to the highest quality teaching and research through eminent professors’ close mentoring of students for the past 40 years. Our graduates are playing pivotal role in the various educational and research organizations of Korean studies around the world with their academic excellence.

Currently, approximately 250 students, including about 120 international students from 30 different countries, are enrolled in Master’s and doctoral degree programs at the Graduate School of Korean Studies, the Academy of Korean Studies.

Scholarship

- Tuition fees are fully waived for all international students.
- 72.8% of international students benefit from the Government Grant, being provided with the monthly stipend of 800,000KRW for a year, renewable upon evaluation.
- Part-time job opportunities as division assistants, dormitory assistants or research assistants on campus are available.

Education

- Since March 2019 we have been a certified institution by the IEQAS (International Education Quality Assurance System) of the Ministry of Education for our international-student-friendly and supportive environments.
- A 5:1 student-faculty ratio enables close one-on-one guidance of students by professors.
- Students are encouraged to participate in the AKS’research projects because we, as an affiliate of a research institution, put a high value on links between research and education.
- Korean language courses specifically designed for academic purposes are available free of charge.
- Various programs such as tutoring, writing clinic, cultural activities, and airfare subsidy for presentation in overseas conferences support student’s academic performance.

- On-campus dormitory accommodations are available at the rate of 543,000KRW per semester(six months), double occupancy.
- A gym and a table tennis room are available free of charge.

○ Guidelines for Submission

A. Online Application Form

- Applicants are required to save information at gradaks.recruiter.co.kr.
- An ID photo should be uploaded.
- Accurate information (a full English name as shown in the passport, a contact number, an email address, etc.) should be provided.

B. Personal Statement

- A prescribed form (Attachment 2) should be completed in Korean and the file should be uploaded on the application website.
 - Applicants for Korean Culture and Society major are allowed to write it in English.
- A personal statement should include self-introduction(applicants' backgrounds, academic life, social activities, view of life, strengths and weaknesses, etc.) and study plan(reasons of application, academic goals, areas of academic interest, future plan after obtaining a degree, etc.).

C. Research Plan

- A prescribed form (Attachment 3) should be completed in Korean and the file should be uploaded on the application website.
 - Applicants for Korean Culture and Society major are allowed to write it in English.
- A research plan should include a research topic, reasons of choosing the topic, review of the previous research, research details (research method, distinct feature of the research, etc.) and bibliography.

D. A Graduation (or an Expected Graduation) Certificate(s) for All Previous Degree(s)

- A scanned copy of the certificate(s) should be uploaded on the application website.
- Certificates must be written in Korean or in English. If not, they must be translated into either in Korean or in English and notarized.

- Applicants for a doctoral degree program should submit graduation certificates of both bachelor's degree and Master's degree.
- If applicants who expect graduation cannot submit such a certificate due to the schools' timeline, certificate of enrollment and official transcript which shows their latest grades should be submitted. The graduation certificate and final transcript should be submitted by the orientation session scheduled in mid-August in 2023.
- ※ However, applicants who have completed all of the graduation requirements at a Japanese university but whose graduation certificate is to be issued in September are allowed to submit an apostilled certificate of graduation within 8 weeks of the beginning of the semester.
- Successful applicants who are finally selected are required to submit an original copy with an apostille by post.

E. Official Transcript(s) for All the Previous Degree(s)

- A scanned copy of the official transcript(s) should be uploaded on the application website.
- Documents must be written in Korean or in English. If not, they must be translated into either in Korean or in English and notarized.
- Applicants for a doctoral degree program should submit official transcripts of both bachelor's degree and Master's degree.
- If an applicant has transferred from one university to another, official transcripts should be submitted from both universities.
- The official transcript must show one of the following information for the whole period of study:
 - ① CGPA(Cumulative Grade Point Average) and a scale (e.g. 3.7/4.0)
 - ② Score percentile (e.g. 83/100)
 - ③ A rank at the school (e.g. 5th among 50 students)
- If a transcript does not include the above information, applicants should submit an official document issued by the university describing the university's grading system.
- Successful applicants who are finally selected are required to submit an original copy with an apostille by post.

F. An Abstract of a Master's Degree Thesis Written in Korean

- Only applicable to a doctoral degree program applicants
- If applicants obtained a Master’s degree without writing a thesis, a note explaining such should be uploaded instead of an abstract.

G. A Letter of Recommendation

- The recommender should be a professor who has taught the applicant during his/her undergraduate or graduate program or a faculty member of the university where the applicant studied who is in the position to evaluate the applicant’s academic competence.
- ※ A recommendation letter written by an instructor from a language school or a supervisor at work is not acceptable.
- Once an applicant completes the online application including information about his/her recommender, the Graduate School of Korean Studies sends an email to the recommender to request a letter of recommendation.
- The recommender must fill in the prescribed form (Attachment 4) in Korean or in English and send it to the School by the deadline.

Who	Applicant	The Graduate School of Korean Studies	Recommender
When (KST)	10:00 March 17 ~ 17:00 March 31 (During the online application period)	~ 7 April	~ 24:00 April 19

- It is acceptable that a recommender submits a letter of recommendation before the School’s request.

- Once a letter of recommendation is received, an acknowledgement is sent to the recommender.
- Letters of recommendation should be received by the above deadline. Late submission is not acceptable.

H. An Official Score Report of a Language Proficiency Test

1) TOPIK

- Applicants except for Korean Culture and Society major should upload a scanned copy of a score certificate of TOPIK level 4 or above which is valid as of the application deadline.
- Applicants for Korean Culture and Society major do not need to submit a TOPIK certificate, but those with a TOPIK certificate can be given preference.

2) TOEFL, IELTS, or TEPS

- Applicants for Korean Culture and Society major should upload a scanned copy of one of the following score reports obtained within 2 years as of the application deadline.

Type of Test	Minimum Score Required	Remarks

 - An original copy of the notarized certificate of nationality
- In case of divorce or death of parents, it is acceptable to submit a certificate of whoever has parental rights.

K. Proof of Relations between an Applicant and Parents

- An official document such as an applicant's birth certificate or a certificate of family relations which shows names of both the applicant and parents.
- In case of divorce or death of parents, an official document that proves such should be submitted.

L. Verification of Deposit

- A bank statement or a letter from a bank should indicate that the final balance of the account maintained by an applicant or his/her family member is minimum 9,000USD or 10,800,000KRW, an estimated amount of living expenses for a year.
- It should be current, i.e. produced within 30 days as of documents submission.
- In particular, if the fund is deposited in a Chinese bank, it should be frozen for minimum 30 days from the date of documents submission.
- If a bank statement is issued under the name of an applicant's family member, a letter of sponsorship [Attachment 5] and a certificate of family relations should be submitted.
- The above amount and criteria was set by the Graduate School of Korean Studies based on the Ministry of Law's guidelines.
- ※ The financial requirements of each Korean embassy for student(D-2) visa issuance may differ, thus applicants MUST consult a Korean embassy in their country in advance concerning the exact amount of finance required.

M. A Master's Degree Thesis

- Only applicable to interviewees for a doctoral degree program
- A soft copy of a Master's degree thesis should be sent by email (admission_intl@aks.ac.kr) before the day of interview.

N. Apostille

- Apostille is a way of legalization of a document according to the Hague Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents ("Apostille Convention"). It ensures that public documents issued in one signatory country will be considered as valid in another signatory country. For more information about apostille, please refer to <https://www.hcch.net> - Members & Parties – HCCH Members.
- Successful applicants are required to submit apostilles or verifying documents for their final degree and official transcript by post during the designated period.
- Apostilles or verifying documents must be written in English, otherwise a notarized translation should be submitted.

1) Students who graduated from institutions in signatory countries of the Apostille Convention

- Apostilles of the diploma and official transcript should be submitted.

2) Students who graduated from institutions in China

- Verification of degree* and official transcripts available at www.chsi.com.cn of China Higher Education Student Information (CHSI, 学信网) should be submitted.
- * Only verification of degree, NOT verification of graduation, is acceptable.

3) Students who graduated from institutions in non-signatory countries of the Apostille Convention

- Verification of the diploma and official transcript by a Korean consulate in a country where the university an applicant was graduated from is located or by a consulate of a country where the university an applicant was graduated from is located in Korea should be submitted.

4) Students who graduated from institutions in Korea

- Additional verification is not required. An original copy of the certificate of graduation and official transcript suffices.

8. Important Notes for Applicants

- A. Applicant's information provided in the application form must be authentic and truthful. If provided information turns out to be false or untruthful, the applicant's admission can be revoked.
- B. Additional documents might be requested, if they are considered necessary for the admission process.
- C. The scores/grades of the admission are not open to the public including applicants themselves.
- D. Documents submitted will not be returned.
- E. All of the certificates should be written in Korean or in English, otherwise they need to be translated and notarized.
- F. A certificate of admission which is required to apply for student(d-2) visa is offered to successful applicants only after an original copy of verified academic certificates and verification of deposit is received.

9. Other Information

- A. Tuition-Exemption Scholarship is offered to all international students during their coursework period unless they are placed under academic probation or disciplinary actions are taken against them.
- B. Selective international students who showed excellence in admission scores are provided with the Government Grant.
- C. Students should pay their boarding fees and other living expenses at their own expense.
- D. For admitted Korean nationals residing abroad, graduation requirement in terms of curriculum to follow is the same with the one for international students.
- E. Obligation to Acquire TOPIK Level 6 (or TOPIK level 4) Before Graduation
 - International students except in the Korean Culture and Society major must attain TOPIK level 6 in order to graduate.
 - International students in Korean Culture and Society major must attain TOPIK level 4 in order to graduate.

F. Health Insurance

- 1) Foreigners with student(D-2) visa are compulsorily subscribed to the local subscriber scheme of the National Health Insurance from the day of foreigner registration and should pay about 72,000KRW of monthly premium (50% of the average rate of all foreign subscribers). This allows international students to receive the same insurance benefits and health checkups as Korean citizens do. However, failure to pay the premium in time may lead to limited insurance benefits and unfavorable measures in relation to visa extension.
- 2) Students with overseas Korean(F-4) visa are also compulsorily subscribed to the local subscriber scheme of the National Health Insurance and should pay approximately 140,000KRW of monthly premium (the average rate of all foreign subscribers).
- 3) For more information, please visit the National Health Insurance Service at <https://www.nhis.or.kr>.

10. Research (Non-Degree) Program

- A. The Research (Non-degree) Program is designed for those with a bachelor's degree who wish to complement their studies by attending GSKS for up to one year.
- B. Those admitted to the program must pay tuition fees(1,280,000KRW per semester) and get enrolled at least one course per semester, to which no credit is given.
- C. An academic advisor can be assigned to a student, and the Certificate of Enrollment/Completion can be issued.
- D. Students can use the same facilities as degree students do, including a library and dormitory accommodation, but are ineligible for financial aid and scholarships.
- E. Admission procedure and required documents for application are same with those for degree program.
