

About KDI School

KDI School of Public Policy and Management was founded in 1997 as an affiliated educational institution of the Korea Development Institute, a premier government economic think tank at the forefront of social science and research since 1971.

The School offers innovative programs that focus on policy and international issues. It aims to produce leaders capable of coping with the rapidly changing environment and exercising global leadership in their respective spheres of influence.

Testimonial

Aditi Pathak / India

Department of Economic Affairs

“The best part of the program was making us see every practical implementation of the process and the result in Korea’s development strategy.”

Elizabeth Ortuño Ramírez / Mexico

Ministry of Foreign Affairs

“It provided me with a solid foundation for my daily work, as it has allowed me to deepen my knowledge about the country, which will facilitate the identification of potential areas for bilateral cooperation.”

Lae Yin Htwe / Myanmar

Ministry of Planning and Finance

“This program brings together people from various backgrounds, cultures, and organizations. By embracing this diversity, my perspectives have broadened, leading to rich learning experiences.”

Global Leadership Program

Overview of the Program

The Global Leadership Program was launched after Korea's hosting of the G20 Leaders Summit in 2010. The program aims to bring together experienced managers and stakeholders from various ministries and government agencies who are dedicated to advancing G20 development goals.

The objective of the program is to enhance the participant's ability to contribute to economic growth and to drive momentum to realize the actual change in one's country. Participation in the program is basically free of charge and all eligible persons may apply.
